of her education in the Cook County Hospital of Chicago. She has made a special study of children's diseases, and the way they are treated, but woman has been her principal study. A lady physician has a certain advantage over her male competitors, for the innate modesty and retiring disposition of women render them unwilling to be treated or operated upon by one of the opposite sex. Her first field of practice was in Rome, Pa., where she remained for seven years, after which she located in Cortland, which has since been her field of successful practice.

Dr. Spalding's ancestors are of Irish descent. She is a daughter of Dr. W. W. Kinney of Rome, Pa. Her paternal great grandfather's name was Joseph Kinney. He was born in Ireland, and was one of three brothers who came to this country and settled in the State of Connecticut, where he probably lived the rest of his days. He was a leading citizen and a man high in public favor. Her grandfather's name was George Kinney. He became a prominent politician, being an avowed Republican. He held various offices, and the duties of every position to which he was chosen were faithfully and honestly discharged. His home was in Bradford County, Pa. The highest office with which he was honored was the representation of his district in the State Senate.

Dr. W. W. Kinney, our subject's father, was born in Bradford County, Pa. He was one of the very brightest physicians in the county, and had a large practice. His professional attainments were superior, while toward all he manifested a kind and gentlemanly demeanor, which gave him the good will and respect of the entire community. He had fine natural abilities and a good education, which well fitted him to become a popular and successful physician. His useful career was ended at the early age of thirty-seven years. His political views were patterned after those of his father. Socially, he was an active member of the I. O. O. F. Dr. Kinney married Elizabeth Chaffee of Catskill, N. Y., a daughter of Sullivan Chaffee, and the results of the union were six children, the eldest of whom was Dr. Julia H. Spalding, the subject of our sketch. She married Edgar E. Spalding, October 14, 1863. They have reared one child, namely: Grace L., born January 8, 1866, who is the wife of Charles H. Miller. Dr. Spalding is a member of the Medico Chirurgical Society of Central New York; and the American Institute of Homeopathy.

Julia Scott, widow of Dr. Scott, a sister Dr. W. W. Kinney, and for whom our subject was named, was a woman of scholarly attainments, a great writer, and was endowed with a poetical mind. Several books were the products of her thought. She was a woman of many virtues, excellent qualities, and largely contributed to the success of her husband. She lived but thirty-two years.

HON. HARLAN P. ANDREWS, an Ex-Member of the State Assembly, and a representative citizen of the town of Cuyler, this county, is a son of James and Esther (Clough) Andrews, and was born in the town of Fabius, Onondaga County, N. Y., October 12, 1837.

The family is of New England stock; his grandfather, William Andrews, was a native of Winsted, Litchfield County, Conn., born August 21, 1766, and there grew to manhood. He married Miss Gosley, December 3, 1786, in Glastonbury, Conn., and reared a family of seven children, four of whom were born at Winsted, Conn., as follows: Seldon; William; Lucy; and James. The other three were born in Fabius. They were Elezar; Clarissa; and Jerusha. William Andrews made agriculture his life work; he took up a tract of Government land, consisting of 160 acres, in what is now known as Keeney's Settlement. He afterward added to this by purchase, until he owned 200 acres, upon which he was at last overtaken by death. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and took a very active part in all that pertained to it. He was one of the organizers of the church at Fabius, filled nearly all the offices at different times, and was class leader and steward. He gave liberally to the cause so dear to his heart, and his house was the home of the ministers during the time the church was in its infancy. He was an old-line Whig and a strong Abolitionist, holding very decided views and not at all afraid in giving them utterance.

James Andrews was also a native of Winsted, Conn. Born April 14, 1796, coming to New York State at an early age. His life was devoted to husbandry and dairying. Fifteen years prior to his death he moved to the village, where he lived a retired life surrounded by his friends. He was a Republican-Abolitionist, strong in the cause. He united with the Baptist Church of Fabius after his removal to the village having previously been a member of the church of the same denomination at Keeney's Settlement, where he had served in most of the offices of that body. His wife was Esther Clough, born June 18, 1799, at Fabius, N. Y.; she was the mother of seven children: Henry, who is an agriculturist of Belvidere, Ill.; Harriet, deceased, was twice married, first to Reuben Risley and subsequently to George Hayes; James Franklin, a retired minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, residing at Syracuse, N. Y.; Abel, deceased; Elon, deceased; Melvina, deceased, wife of Seabury Kinney; and Harlan P., our subject.

Harlan P. Andrews was educated at the district schools in Keeney until he had reached his thirteenth year, when he was found to be sufficiently advanced to enter the High School of Fabius, which he did, graduating from it a few years later. When eighteen he entered Cazenovia College, where he spent two years acquiring a good education, which was but the nucleus to which he has continually added since. He is a man of unusually bright intellect, a close observer and a keen student of human nature. He returned home from college, and until he was twenty-five spent his time there in tilling the soil. He then purchased a farm of 160 acres in Cuyler, and has since made it his home. He afterwards purchased 100 acres joining him on the north, and later the 100 that joined him on the south, giving him one of the largest as well as best farms in that section. He has entered quite extensively into dairying, keeping from forty-five to sixty-five cows. He was formerly a cattle dealer and very successful, but his attention has been centered principally in the dairy for several years past. Every building on his farm is in good condition and the stock has the best of care; thrift and order are everywhere visible.

Mr. Andrews has been twice married. He was first married to Phoebe P. Brown, daughter of Benjamin Brown of Cuyler, December 4, 1861. Three children were born to them: Burnett B. lives near Syracuse on a farm; Mertie, wife of George Loomis, a merchant of Cazenovia; Lina, wife of Walter Keeney of Keeney's Settlement. After the death of Mrs. Andrews, he placed Marian Bogardus at the head of his household. She is a daughter of Israel Bogardus, a Quaker of Belvidere, Ill. Four children have blessed this union: Howard I., a graduate of Syracuse University, class of 1895, and at present a student of Drew Theological Seminary of Madison, N. J.; Mildred, a student at Cazenovia College; Irene and Louise, both pupils in the district school at their home. The youngest two are assiduous in their studies and give promise of a brilliant future, and their father is sparing no pains to give them every advantage in the way of a good education. Mr. Andrews has been closely identified with the interests of the Republican party in Cortland County for many years, serving as assessor, three terms as supervisor, one term as justice of the peace and as assemblyman in 1884 and 1885. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, although formerly a Baptist, and an attendant of that church at Keeney's Settlement, where he has filled most of the offices. Both himself and wife are ever willing to lend a hand to any good work, no matter by what sect it may be fathered and advanced, so that it has for its object the betterment of humanity, or some portion of it. He is also a member of Truxton Lodge, A. O. U. W.

ALBERT RICE, a prosperous, enterprising agriculturist of the town of Cincinnatus, is a son of Jason and Caroline (Wicks) Rice, and was born August 28, 1842, in the town of Taylor, Cortland County, this state. William Rice, his grandfather, was a native of Connecticut, but left that state about 1797, when but a boy, and located in Taylor, this county, where he became one of the most prosperous farmers in this section of the country.

Among the children who survived him was Jason Rice, the father of the subject of this biography. He was born about 1807 in this county, and spent the greater portion of his life on the farm in Cincinnatus. He was a Republican in politics, but never took an active part in public life, as he found more enjoyment in a quiet domestic existence. He was united in marriage with Miss Caroline Wicks, who was the mother of his two children: Albert, and Marvin, who died young.

Albert Rice received his education in the common schools, after leaving which he started in life on his own account. He had an inherited as well as an acquired taste for agriculture, and to this occupation he turned Helen - Great talking with you. Here's the email I wrote before we talked.

Helen - I'm so glad to hear form you, particularly with your interest in family genealogy. I've wondered for years if anyone would ever be interested in some of the old family things I have. I'm so glad we connected.
As I sit her writing you I'm looking at an old family album from, who knows what year, perhaps 1860 something.
Here's a list of the photos:

Your E-mail was far from boring! You certainly had a lot of trauma to deal with and weren't the first or be the last to have a marriage buckle under.

It was really nice for you, being able to get the whole family together at the same time. We have trouble doing that but usually manage it once a year or year and a half.

I've done a lot of genealogy and have the Andews back to the immigrants. However, I haven't done a good job on the siblings families. If you are interested, I'll send you some stuff and in exchange, you can help fill in your branch.

Dave was 14 in that picture you sent. So that was when he was up there with his parents for a week or two visit. He was 16 when he worked up there.

Please keep in touch.

KEENEY CEMETERY

FABIUS, NY

This data was sent to me by my cousin, Audrey A. Sommer, who is one of my favorite people. I used the Composer in the new Netscape® Communicator 4.01 (and some HTML hand coding) to transcribe and format this wonderful legacy left by Manly King Haskins (1892 - 1976) and his daughter, Melva Kingsley Hatti. I have tried to follow Manly's original format as much as possible. The Keeney Cemetery is located in Onondaga County, New York. It is south of Fabius, on West Keeney Road just north of the Cortland County line. Civil War veterans in red, Revolutionary War veterans in green and uniques in blue. Please let me gary.knapp@iname.com know if this "Reading" of the Keeney Cemetery helps you solve any of your genealogical mysteries.

This data is for non-commerical use only.

"READING" of KEENEY CEMETERY

By Mrs. Melva Kingsley Hitti (Nee Haskins) and Manly King Haskins October 1968

Preface
I was in Keeney, New York in July 1968 and was going to " READ " the cemetery - found it impossible - grown up with brambles and so many stones tipped over and broken, especially in the old or rear part of the cemetery.
My daughter was in the area in August 1968 and found that they were in the process of cleaning out the brambles, repairing and re-setting the stones.
We visited the cemetery in October 1968. All credit for this detailed report is due my daughter - she read the data on every stone.
The information has been taken down as accurately as possible - the straps used to repair the stones sometimes covered data - this could not be avoided.
Some of the stones were broken beyond repair and the broken parts are neatly piled on the lower level.
An interesting observation. The cemetery runs from East to West. You walk in the cemetery and face a stone and read it facing West. Go up the rise to the the back, or old part of the cemetery, you have to turn around and face East to read the Stones.

Signed Mrs. Melva Kingsley Hitti

Back Part of Cemetery

The back part of the cemetery is laid out in rows. I have started at the East side and worked to the back of the cemetery. I have indicated the direction in which the row is read under the row number.

On the slope back of the A. D. Haskins lot is the Samuel Webster lot.

Helen & Dave -
I got your email, I'll scan and sent the photos later in the week.
This is a diagram of the Andrews, Dake and Collins plot at Greenwood Cemetery in Homer that I drew when I buried Grandpa Collins in 1973 or 74. It was quite some time after he died because I had a hard time letting him go. I kept his ashes for a long time after he died.

Dear Mary:-

Your welcome letter at hand. The enclosed letters were very interesting and I have copied them word for word and now return them at the same time soliciting any other matter you may have, with which I can do like-wise. I saw Cousin Cal a short time since and she told me you were in Homer but not knowing whether you are there now or not I am undecided about where to send this. how-ever think it will be to Homer. I will also send some schedule records which I would be pleased to have you try to fill out as you may be able to get much information from Aunt Susan. I will also ask a few questions which I would in order that you can let Aunt Susan look them over, after which please return them to me.

= Who are the Reeds + Pierces of Hudson O. mentioned in Geo Chandlers letter of Dec 13-1864?

= Can you give me a copy of all the notes in the Clark bible which Aunt Susan has.?

= Who made the lead pencil changes on Geo Chandlers letters?

= How did James^3 Clark die, cause &c?

= Does Aunt Susan know date of Uncle Curts death? I had it but being away from home sent it back here to be kept and it was lost. — I have never been able to get any of uncle Curts family to reply one word to any of my genealogical questions as to dates &c. and am consequently much in ignorance of these important facts, I prize every thing in the shape of letters + records and in order in future to always have them with me where ever I go, I have had a "ship trunk" made with a lid opening like to know —

= Would like knowledge of Uncle Colemans Ancestry as far back as it can with-out to much trouble be given correct full names dates, places &c.

= Were the Chandler & Andrews records or M. S. ever destroyed by fire while in a printing House in Boston?

= Are you sure Susan Andrews was b. 1795 — I think it was 1790 and died in 1860 instead of 1857. I was born in Jany 9th 1857 and in my extreme youth I think I remember her funeral services, I would very much like these dates positively fixed, if she Susan a was b. 1795 she was only ~~about~~ 17 when she M. different letters do not agree.

= Tell me who James³ Clark's 2nd. wife was and all about her, and her family &c. &c. I have one (and one only) of Grand father James³ Clarks letters which with a few other interesting letters I will send out which serves as a regular writing desk and in this way I will always be able to put in my spare time and record matter as I get it, this trunk I will also ship with me where ever I go as baggage — "See".

= I should like from aunt Susan at what different places and about the dates where her Father and family had lived, one of Geo Chandlers letters say "Susan Andrews M. James Clark of Pennsylvania" other than this I have never known ~~that~~ the family ever lived in ~~that~~ State. — was he not mistakened?

= My notes will be of interest, I have filled most of my schedules in pencil, these I send are "mems" from which I expect — when completed to copy over again and some re-aranging done by a more acurate and practical person than my-self, — Yes I wish very much I could be with you in Homer, for I am sure both of us together could dig up and collect lots of notes,

Fathers recollection of dates, places and facts is very imperfect and in consequence I have left doubtful questions (in his case) blank — for the present. — I am collecting records of all the married and inter-married descendants of Caleb^2 Clark Jr. yet wish principally to get the direct line back as far as possible which when complete and satisfactory I want to have published in one of the genealogical magazines for distribution and sale among the family, how-ever it will likely take years before this can be done. In a short-time the Carpenter genealogy will — after 50 years of work on the part of Amos B. Carpenter will be given to the family — it will be one of the best works of the kind ever gotten out, the specimen copy which I send will be changed by having the names of intermarried families put in heavy type — Elisha you return these records to me I will send those of Caleb^1 + Caleb^2 to her and see what she can add. You will find these notes in very bad shape I would copy them over but time and the inconvenience of a crippled hand makes it necessary to ask you to kindly excuse all errors and un-tidyness, = Perhaps Aunt Susan can tell more about Helen C's. first husband their date of mariage &c., I should like to know more of Uncle George and his wife and now if there is any-thing else I don't know and am curious enough to want to know, I wish you would remind me of it and I will ask you about it. All of us want to be remembered to all the relatives with love and best-wishes and the few questions and work I am giving you is merely intended to keep you out of mischief, I have held back the records of Father's family on acount of postage, and the fact

1/26- is my [illegible] grand Father. there will be over 6000 names of Carpenters (not including inter-married names) and as this sample gives 1199 you can see that the book is (it was about a month ago) only about 1/4 printed. I look for its entire completion in a month

= If you can I should like to learn as much as possible of Martha (call'd. Patty) In collecting information all facts are earnestly solicited in order that the compiler may be correctly informed, but in cases where such matter will not bear publication, such matter is always "fixed up". — I have today sent a letter of inquiry to Mrs H.E. Hine, who if living must at present be very old, it has been 16 years since I last heard from her, and from the interest she then took in the work if she is living she must have accumulated much valuable information. If I hear from her, after that I have them completed. With this I send you to be returned:

=James Clarks letter Apr 7-1861 likely the last one Aunt Susan's father ever wrote

=Mrs H.E. Hine's letter dated May. 13-1879.

= " " " " " Oct. 28-1879

= " " " " " Dec. 18-1879

I believe this will go in the mail as manuscript, at least there can be no harm in trying it. Good bye

Love to all, and let me hear from you real soon

Subject: Re: Good Morning!

Helen & David –

I'm glad we were able to connect. I've thought of David off and on but I always figured that it would be difficult to find "David Read" in Ohio without a city or middle initial. On the back if the picture I sent you it says 'David J Read 7/25/52'. So, that's how I found you.

Sounds like you've got quite a family.

Here's, briefly so as not to bore you, my family situation. I was married for ten years, divorced in 1990. From that marriage I have one son, Jesse – he's 22, lives on the mainland about a 30 minute drive (after the ferry ride). He's potter and carpenter. We had a very tough year and a half in '78 and '79. My brother in law died in a car accident, then my brother was murdered and then my sister in law died of cancer. As a result of all that my then wife and I helped financially with my brothers son and raised my wife's nephew and niece. The stress of it all was too much for our relationship. After the two older kids finished high school we divorced.

Since 1997 I've been in a relationship with a great woman. We split our time between the island where I work and her home on the mainland. She's got three kids and four grandchildren. They've taken me in and I'm known as 'Grandpa Dake' to the little ones. Marilyn's 'kids' are scattered all over the place. Her youngest son and his wife live in South Africa; he is the chief financial officer for Habitat for Humanity for Africa and the Near East. The next oldest and his wife and two kids live in Westport, CT. He's a financial consultant. The eldest, a daughter, and her husband and two kids live in Denmark. She's a chef and interior designer.

All the grandkids and their parents were her last week, great time for all. Their visit is the reason for the delayed response.

Sorry to ramble so, I hope I didn't bore you.

Regards, Dake

Ann Norton married Who?
(which John Warner)

by Davis P. Warner, CSG #2227S

What do we know about Ann Norton?

First we know that she was the daughter of Thomas Norton of Guilford and Grace ___. Thomas Norton was an original settler of Guilford and died in 1648, leaving a widow Grace and several minor children. One son, John, was married and living in Hartford. I think it can be safely assumed that Ann went to live (or visit) her older brother. In Hartford she married a John Warner. So far we have no arguments from anybody, but the question is who was this John Warner.

Many claim that this John was our ancestor John of Famington who was 35 years old and already had two sons Daniel and John (John was b. 1644/5). In fact, the John Warner that married Ann Norton was the 20 year old John of Hartford, the son of Andrew. John and Ann then resided in Middletown and had six Children (1. Hannah, 2. John, 3. Mary m. John North, 4. Elizabeth, 5. Jonathan m. Elizabeth Ranney, 6. Sarah m. Ebenezer Ranney).

The confusion began when a John Warner of Hadley was assumed to be the son of Andrew , thus making the marriage of Andrew's son to Ann Norton impossible. The John Warner of Hadley was not Andrew's son, but the son of William of Ipswich, Mass.

Once you realize that the John of Hadley belongs to William and Early Connecticut Settlers in Cortland County, New York.

Pioneer History of Cortland County, New York.
by H.C. Goodwin, 1859

Copied and abstracted, with additions,
by Dorothy Chapman Saunders, Ph.D., CSG #11130

Cortland county was formed from Onondaga County on 8 April 1808 and included the original townships of Virgil, Cincinnatus, Homer, Solon, and the south half of Tully and Fabius. It was in the southeast corner of the "Onondaga Military Tract", which was given to the soldiers of the Rev War as pay in the form of land bounties (Historical Gazeteer of N.Y. State, J.H. French, 1860, p 250). Before 1791 the territory now (1859) making up Cortland County was known to the whites only from charts and maps, and was regarded as of but minor importance because of its location.

Town of Homer

Pages 147-177. The town of Homer was organized 5 Mar 1794, and originally included the townships of Homer and Cortland. The first pioneers who settled in the Tioughnioga Valley of Cortland Co were Amos Todd and Joseph Beebe, and the sister of Amos Todd who was the wife of Josseph Beebe, in 1791. They first came from New Haven, Ct to Windsor, Broome Co, NY in 1789. Joseph Beebe built his house, which consisted of poles, 12 x 15 ft in size, north of Homer village near the upper bridge. In 1793 the Beebes left their house of poles and settled on lot 42, west of the village on land owned by Amos Todd. Several companies came in during 1795, including Libeus Andrews of Hartford, CT, who purchased and settled on land in lot 56. Thomas G. Ebenezer and Charles Alvord came in from Farmington, Ct and settled on lot 13 in the northwest part of town. In 1798 Samuel Hotchkiss came from New Haven, Ct and located on lot 44. William Lucas and Asahel Miner came from Woodbury, Ct and the former located on lot 35. He was a useful and prominent citizen and his four surviving children removed to Ohio. Asahel Miner settled on what is now (1859) the Lucas Welch farm, and was appointed 8 Apr 1808 as the first sheriff of Cortland Co. His son, Martin, resides in the village of Homer.

After 1800 the town began to settle more rapidly. In 1800 Ephraim P. Summer came from Ct and purchased 200 acres on lot 47, where his wife d 1840 and he d 1843. They had ten children. Noah Carpenter came from Pomfret, Windham Co, Ct and located on lot 16. He brought with him his son, Asaph H., who now resides on the original premises.

Waterman and Levi Phillips came from Ct, and Waterman bought 107 acres on lot 69 near where Trout Creek empties into the Tioughnioga. He now (1859) lives in the village of Homer aged 81, and his sons are Jefferson, Abel K. and George. Levi Phillips came with an ox team and one horse, and located on lot 16 where he eventually purchased 147 acres. His surviving sons are Levi Jr on lot 28, Charles at Nanticoke, Oren who lives on the homestead farm, and Erastus who lives in the village of Homer. Levi Sr d 1845 aged 78 and his widow d in 1850 aged 79.

In 1802 Deacon Thomas Chollar came in from Windham, Ct and in 1804 selected a location on lot 17. In 1803 Moses Butterfield came from Canterbury, Ct, and Levi Bowen from Woodstock, Ct. Butterfield located on lot 47 on a farm where he d in 1820. Bowen settled on lot 7, where he purchased 96 acres and d in 1832. He had eight children, of whom five are living in 1859. Capt Zephaniah Hicks, originally from RI, migrated in 1805 from Ct and located on lot 17. He was an active, high-minded man, and removed in 1835 to Ingham, Mich where he was still living in 1859. His son, Jacob, was aged two when he came in 1805 with his father, and he eventually settled on lot 27, "his advent on the Hill dates farther back than that of any remaining settler". His eldest dau, Nancy, m Silas Elbridge Mann, a prominent citizen and hardware merchant of Jordan.

In 1810 Deacon Jesse Ives of Litchfield, Ct and Andrew Burr of Sharon, Ct arrived. Deacon Ives purchased 90 acres of land on lot 16 and was a universally respected, industrious and enterprising farmer who d 27 Nov 1857 aged 81. Andrew Burr opened a tannery and manufactured leather, which he sold in 1816 to William Kingsbury, and then went into the saddlery and harness business for thirty years. He built several dwellings in the village, and the rear part of his house consists of the first church which was erected in Homer. James Hull came ca 1815 from Norfolk, Ct and first settled on a farm, but now (1859) lives in the village. In 1818 Daniel Josling came from Windham, Ct and settled on lot 17. Among the town officers appointed for the year 1795 were: Assessors, Joseph Beebe, Daniel Miner; and Overseer of Poor, Joseph Beebe. In 1797 Homer contained ninety-two inhabitants (pages 167-8, 170).

Town of Solon

Pages 177-179. This town originally was the Military Township No 20, and was organized on 9 Mar 1798. The first permanent settlement in Solon was made in 1794 by Roderick Beebe of Mass, and Johnson Bingham who was a native of Ct, but who came from Vt. Bingham purchased 550 acres on lot 62 and reared eight children there. He was justice of the peace for ca twenty years, and an associate Judge for many years. He d in 1842 aged 79, and his widow survives him (1859) in good health at the age of 95. The NSDAR Patriot Index, 1966 (hereafter Pat Index) p 60 lists Bingham, Johnson b 3-22-1764 d 6-8-1843, m Anna Johnson, Pvt Ct, pensioned. Connecticut Revolutionary Pensioners (hereafter Conn Rev Pens) p 21 shows that they received Bounty Land Warrant 26556-160-55, and that his widow, Anna, received pension W18595 for his service.

In 1801 Col Elijah Wheeler came from New Haven, Ct and made a purchase of 100 acres on lot 100. Garret Pritchard came from Litchfield, Ct in 1807 with a pack on his back and but $16.50 in cash. After determination and hard work he not only paid $500. which his father had owed when he settled the previous year, but located, himself, on lot 74. He now (1859) owns about 500 acres of land on lot 75 where he lives. Henry L. Randall came from Sharon, Ct in 1808 with a two-horse team, with which he brought household articles. With him came sons Henry, David and William, and he had two more, Linus and Orrin, here. He still lives on his home farm on lot 74 at the age of 81, "enjoying in a remarkable degree his physical and intellectual faculties". Jonathan Randall also came from Sharon and located on lot 74; perhaps they were relatives.

Town of Virgil

Pages 180-192. This town was No 24 of the Military Townships surveyed in 1790, and it was organized on 8 Apr 1804. The early settlers are not identified as to the State they came from.

Town of Cincinnatus

Pages 192-198. This town was No 25 of the original townships of the Military Tract and it was organized on 8 Apr 1804. Its settlement was commenced in 1795. No early settlers are mentioned here as being from Ct. (See pages 222-226, Town of Freetown, which was originally part of Cincinnatus.)

Town of Preble

Pages 198-207. This town was organized on 8 Apr 1808 from the south half of the old Military Township of Tully. In 1815 it was reduced to its present size by the erection of the Town of Scott. The first settler was James Cravat, a native of Ct, who in 1796 came in from Pompey Hill (Onondaga Co) and located on lot 68. He erected the first dwelling house in 1798. In 1797 Samuel and Robert Cravath came from Norfolk, Ct and also settled on lot 68. They may have been of the same surname and family. In 1800 Samuel Orvis came from Norfolk, Ct also, and located on lot 59. He later removed to Prattsburg, Steuben Co, with four of his children, where he died in 1851 aged 98. One son, Reuben S., now lives in Hastings, Oswego Co. In 1801 Judge Jabez B. Phelps, a native of Hebron, Ct, came to Preble from Cazenovia and located on lot 88. He practised medicine for some years, but then turned to politics and was an associate Judge, surrogate, and member of the NY Assembly. He d 20 Dec 1850 aged 74, and his widow is now (1859) in excellent health at the age of 78. They had ten children, three of whom removed to Ohio: Amanda who m Hon Ezekiel Chew of Richland, Ohio; Abram J. of Newark, Ohio; and Calvin B. of Chrysoline, Ohio.

Town of Truxton

Pages 207-214. This town was organized from the south half of the Military Township of Fabius on 8 Apr 1808, and also includes four tiers of lots taken from the north part of Solon. Town of Scott Pages 214-218. Scott was erected from the western part of Preble on 14 Apr 1815. In 1805 John Gillet came from Norfolk, Ct, and in 1807-8 he bought 100 acres of lot 84, which he later increased to ca 300 acres. He was the first postmaster in town, a justice of the peace for twenty years, town supervisor, associate Judge of the County Court for fifteen years, and a member of the NY State Legislature. In 1806 Daniel Doubleday came from Lebanon, Ct and settled in the town of Homer. In 1809 he moved to Scott where he bought land and lived on lot 85. He reared a family and accumulated a good property. Now (1859) at an advanced age of 72 he has spent a long life in productive employment.

Town of Freetown

Pages 222-226. This town was organized 21 Apr 1818, and was erected from the northwest quarter of the old Military Township of Cincinnatus, plus lot 20 from the eastern part of Virgil. Isaac Robertson came into town from Ct in 1808 and selected a location on which to live. He lived but a short time, dying in 1811, and his wife in 1815. They left eleven children, three of whom now (1859) are living. In 1813 Austin Waters came from Saybrook, Ct and located on lot 12 where he purchased 105 heavily-timbered acres. He slowly cleared them and made his land into a dairy farm, and is still living in Freetown at the age of 80 years. Walton Swetland came from Granville, Ct and settled on the Trip farm on lot 22, where he eventually owned a farm of 130 acres. In 1846 he opened a mercantile business which he still continues with success. He was school inspector, superintendent, and has been justice of the peace for twenty-eight years, a position which he still holds. In 1844 he was appointed associate Judge, and he now resides at Freetown Corners, aged about 65 years.

Town of Cortlandville

Pages 249-253. This town was organized from the southern part of the town of Homer on 14 Apr 1829. In 1795 Reuben Doud, originally from New Haven, Ct came and settled on lot 75. In 1796-7 the "venerable" Samuel Crittenden and Eber Stone came from Ct and purchased 160 acres on lot 66 where they settled. The present Main Street in Cortland village was the boundary line between them. Samuel Crittenden came in with an ox-team, being twenty-five days on the road. He built a house on ground a little east of the present post office. He is now living in Groton, Tompkins Co. William and Roswell Randall, natives of Ct, came from Madison Co to Cortland about 1812. Samuel McGraw came from New Haven, Ct in 1803 and located on lot 87 where he bought 100 acres of land. In 1809 he removed to McGrawville, which was named for him, and purchased about 200 acres. At this time only three families were settled within the area of the present village. He had eight sons and four daus, eight of whom are now (1859) living. He d in Feb 1836 and his widow, aged 84 years, is still living in good health on the homestead. One son, Harry, was for many years a merchant in the village, and he d in 1849. Harry was the father of Hon P.H. McGraw.

Town of Lapeer

Pages 256-259. This town was organized on 2 May 1845 from the eastern part of Virgil. Seth Jennings came from Ct in 1803 and settled on lot 597 (sic) where he lived until his death. He left several sons, one of whom, Harry, still owns his original farm, but now lives in Harford. Timothy Robertson, also from Ct, came at about the same time and lived for a time with Seth Jennings. He was a soldier in the Rev War and was with Montgomery in 1775 at the storming of Quebec. His only remaining descendant, a son Eliphalet, is now living in Lapeer. Thomas Kingsbury and Robert W. Wheeler, both natives of Ct, settled in 1804 in the south-eastern part of town. Thomas was a soldier in the Rev War and drew a pension. The Pat Index p 389 lists Kingsbury, Thomas b 9-1-1754 d 3-7-1839 m Esther Baker, Pvt Ct, pensioned. John S Squires, a native of Ct, came from Lisle, Broome Co in 1807 and settled on lot 68. He left a numerous family, of whom a son, Dan C., now lives on the old farm, and his youngest son, James S., lives in Cortland. The first death in the town was a son of John S. Squires's, Robert C., who d 9 May 1809 ca 2 years. Sixteen soldiers of the Rev War settled in Lapeer, and all but one of them died there.

Town of Taylor

Pages 260-265. Taylor was erected on 5 Dec 1849 from Solon. Roderic Beebe, a native of Ct, was an early settler of the area, settling on Mt Roderic on lot 75 in the spring of 1794. The "venerable" Orellana Beebe came from New Haven, Ct in 1796 and settled on lot 7 in Solon, now Truxton. After two years he removed to Taylor where he bought land on lot 100. He is still living there, aged 88, remarkably active and healthy. Mrs Beebe is blind and aged 84. The Pat Index p 49 lists one Beebe, Roderick b 3-1-1753 d 1-2-1836 m Anna Vaughan, Sgt NY, who may be he. Roderick was an uncommon name at this time. Lewis Hawley, from Huntington, Ct came in 1805 and located first on a farm in Pitcher, and then on one in Taylor. After an abortive start for Ohio, he returned to Taylor and settled on lot 78. Later he purchased 100 acres on lot 77 where he d 15 Jan 1858. He was an "industrious, active and valuable citizen", and raised a family of seven children who are all living (1859): Lewis T.

in Syracuse, James T. on lot 87, Sarah Ann who m John Biger, Francis who lives on the homestead, Hiram L. at Liverpool, Onondaga Co, Cyrus M. who is an attorney in Chicago, Ill, and John H. who lives in Kansas. In 1814 David Wire, who was originally from Ct, came in and bought land on lot 100 where he reared a family of eleven children, five of whom are still living. David's father, Thomas Wire, was a native of England and was kidnapped in London when seven years old and sold in Boston where he lived until the start of the French and English War. He was impressed in the English service for six years, but later returned and settled in Ct. When the Amer Rev broke out, he enlisted in the Amer army and served throughout the war.

Pages 318-319. There are but a few, if any, counties in the State at present which enjoy greater educational facilities than Cortland County. The Cortland and Cortlandville Academies..the former located at Homer and the latter at Cortland Village..are enjoying a good deal of prosperity. The first settlers, being chiefly from Ct, brought with them books and schoolmasters and their high regard for literary institutions. Cortland Academy was incorporated by the Regents of the Univ of the State of NY on 2 Feb 1819.

The English Ancestry of Thomas Gridley of Windsor and Hartford, Connecticut (1612-1655)

by Thomas Boslooper, PhD, CSG #12644

Thomas Gridley, the first Gridley in America, a Founder of Windsor, the first Colony in Connecticut, and Hartford, Connecticut, was born at Essex in England and baptized in the parish of Ashen, Braintree, Essex on April 10, 1612. He was the son of Thomas Gridley and his wife Elizabeth Clarke.

During the past century several descendents of Thomas Gridley have traced his English heritage. Around 1930 Mary Gridley Bell, while living at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, hired a researcher in Chicago to do an investigation. Charles Vernon Gridley Buddy produced a genealogy more than a generation ago that is now in the hands of his daughter Mrs. Jean Rose of Burlington, Mass. Rev. Harold Gridley of Grand Rapids, Michigan currently possesses a copy of an undated English heritage produced by the Media Research Bureau of Washington, D.C. L.C. Gridley of Cleveland, Ohio filed a Gridley English pedigree chart, prepared in 1947, with the DAR in Washington, D.C. In 1972 Marian Eleanor Gridley donated a file on the Gridley heritage that included an English background which now is located in the New York State Library in Albany, N.Y. That file was begun by her great-grandfather Judge Grandison Thomson Gridley (1816 -1889) of Jackson, Mich. and continued by his son Col. William Seward Gridley (1838 - 1889) and his wife Caroline Eleanor (1846 - 1944) of Jackson and Chicago, Ill. and Marian Eleanor Gridley (1906 - 1974) of Chicago, Ill., their granddaughter. The second English genealogy has no dates. The third and fourth are too brief and sketchy to be meaningful. The fifth is collaborative and adds some details.

All of these genealogies indicate problems in certain areas. The difficulties, however, are minor. All agree that the lineage that produced Thomas Gridley of Windsor and Hartford, Connecticut began with Albertus Greslet in the 11th century.

Additional work was done by this researcher especially to expand on and to clarify the first three centuries of Thomas Gridley's English ancestry.

Albertus Greslet

Albertus Greslet (or De Grelly or Gresley or Greslei) entered England from Normandy 1066 with the army of William the Conqueror.

Brief History

This is an exciting and historic time for the ancient Scottish Clan Moffat.

Clan Moffat originated perhaps a thousand years ago in the hills of border Scotland, and grew to be a powerful and respected Family. But the Scottish wars and feuds took its toll. In the sixteenth century, at a moment of vulnerability, its enemies pressed.

Clan is simply the Scottish Gaellic word for Family. In the ancient traditions of Scotland, a clan without a chief is a "heidless" or headless clan and, therefore, does not exist.

The Chief of the Moffat Clan had died and before the new Chief could be proclaimed, Clan Moffat found itself under seige. The family members—all kinsmen—scattered throughout the known world. Clan Moffat was a broken clan.

And so it remained for more than four centuries—headless, broken and scattered, its place in history forgotten and ignored.

But a young Scottish Army officer was to change all that. When World War II ended and Francis Moffat returned to his family farm at Moffat, Dumfriesshire, he remembered the stories he had heard since childhood—that his was the family directly descended from the last Chief of Clan Moffat. Thus began his search through dim and fragile volumes that recorded Scotland's history. While rising to prominence as a farmer and political leader, Francis Moffat spent equal time documenting the Family history. By 1983, after more than 30 years of research, the documentation was complete. On July 20, 1983, the Court of the Lord Lyon of Scotland recognized Francis Moffat as Chief of the Name and Arms of the Family of Moffat. For the first time in more than 400 years, the ancient Clan Moffat of the Scottish Borders had a chief and Francis Moffat of Dumfriesshire assumed the title of The Moffat of That Ilk.

Among the first official actions taken by the newly-recognized Clan Chief was to appoint Dr. Jack L. Maffett of Carrollton, Ohio as his official representative, bearing the title of Local Commander for North America. Dr. Maffett drew together other members of the family in Ohio and, in June of 1984, the Maffat Clan Society of North America was founded. Its goal is to bring together all branches of the family who emigrated to the New World.

Purposes of the Society

The Moffat Clan Society of North America has set definite goals to accomplish in the interest of the Clan Moffat.

Family Gatherings— The most important goal for the Society from its beginnings has been to provide a way for descendents of the Scottish Moffat family to gather, meet one another, and enjoy the comradeship and shared values of kin. To make this possible, the Society sponsors gatherings at Scottish games and festivals across the United States and Canada.

Communicating With One Another— Communication is essential for families to share ideas and values. The Society publishes the newsletter Moffatana, informing members of Society activities, activities of individual Family Members, and history and customs of Clan Moffat.

Genealogy— There are many, many branches of the Moffat Family across the United States and Canada. As one of its officers, the Moffat Clan Society Geanealogist is amassing information about various branches and, through computerization, beginning to trace connections spanning the continent. The Society Genealogist provides a vital information source for anyone wishing to trace his or her own branch of the Moffat Family in the New World. When you join, a first duty will be to submit information you may have on your family history so it will become a part of the permanent record of the Moffat Clan Society.

Family History— The history of Clan Moffat in Scotland has been traced by Moffat of That Ilk, who has written the most thorough and well-researched history of Clan Moffat ever. This bound volume personally signed by the Chief of the Clan is available through the Society. The Family history in the United States and Canada is the responsibility of historians active in the Society. An official Historian is an appointive office of the Society and, like the Genealogist, offers a single source for authentic information on the Family in North America.

Clan Moffatt Insignia and Dress— Clan Moffat has its own Clansman's badge, its own beautiful and distinctive tartan. Most of these items, including key rings, wall plaques, kilt pins and stationery, are available only through the Moffat Clan Society Quartermaster. Prices to members are at cost plus handling.

Honoring Distinguished Family Members— Members of the Moffat Family have brought honor and distinction to the Family throughout the histories of the United States and Canada. The Moffat Clan Society provides an opportunity for the works of these persons—both living and dead—to be honored and brought to the attention of all.

Restoring Its Place in History— A member of the Clan Moffat can be pround of the heritage of the Family, but because the Clan was broken and scattered for so many centuries, often we have been overlooked. It is a goal of the Moffat Clan Society that the place in history of the proud and ancient Clan Moffat be recognized and restored.

How Do You Spell Your Name?

It doesn't matter how you spell it, we're still kin!

As members of the Clan Moffat moved out of Scotland—to France, England, Germany, Canada, the United States, and to other parts of the world—spelling of the name changed. Because Clan Moffat had never merged with other Clans (We remained a "closed" Clan), all persons of original Scottish descent with the surname Moffat, in any of its various spellings, are related. The spellings recognized by the Chief of the Clan are:

Moffat	Moffatt	Moffet	Moffett
Moffit	Moffitt	Maffat	Maffatt
Maffet	Maffett	Maffit	Maffitt
Muffat	Muffatt	Muffet	Muffett
Muffit	Muffitt	Morphat	Morphatt
Morphet	Morphett	Morphit	Morphitt

(Other variations may be recognized by Moffat of that Ilk or the Executive Council of the Moffat Clan Society.)

How to Join

Membership in the Society is limited to men and women 18 years of age or older who are direct lineal descendants of a Scot bearing the surname Moffat (or any of its spellings) or who can trace ancestry to the Clan Moffat. The spouse of such a person is also eligible for membership.

Membership is by family—the husband or wife of a member and all dependent children under the age of 18 are automatically members and entitled to participate in activities of the Society.

To join, simply fill out the membership form provided and submit it with a check or money order in the amount of $15.00 (U.S.) to:

Dear Mr. Read,

Thanks so much for your time on the phone last evening and especially for your work on the Andrews line.

First off, I'm enclosing a money order for $^{$}13^{\underline{50}}$ for a copy of your Chandler genealogy. From its length, as you described, it must be quite a piece of work.

Enclosed you will find three family group sheets covering Phineas Moffett's parents and siblings, same for Fanny Cook Andrews (as I've ~~contributed~~ constructed it from your Andrews work) and same for Phineas and Fanny and their children.

The business cards enclosed will give you some idea of my involvements. Before assuming the publications position (in July) for Moffat Clan, I was clan historian for three years. The clan began at Oberlin Ohio Scottish Games in 1984. I didn't learn of it until 32 months later. Went to my first clan meeting in April 1987 and came home first Clan historian.

Following are some comments/questions. I'll number them and any you can comment or reply to them can be done by number.

1) Spelling of "Moffett" becomes inconsistent and varied. We all come from MOFFAT, generally considered the stem. My family line has pretty much settled on MOFFETT for about 200 years. Still you find variations when things were verbal/hand written. Have deeds where my ancestor(s) where variously spelled by the writer (throughout) and only final signature of ancestor showed as MOFFETT.

2) There are "Joseph" Moffetts in four successive generation, the first three in my direct line. For easy ID, I've numbered I, II, III, IV. — III and IV were both Drs. (MDs).

3) As I mentioned, I had little info on Fanny Andrews. but in several census records she also showed as born - Conn.; year 1799.
Since Violet B. birth is a question to you - 1799 or 1801 perhaps we can work on this. Your record shows Violet born in Homer.
Therefore, if Fanny was born in Conn. and Violet in Homer, the Andrews family moved from Farmingdale to Homer - EITHER between 1797 - 1799 or between 1799 - 1801, it would appear.

4) Birthplace - Phineas Sargent Moffett - and some siblings. The LDS sheet (enclosed copy) is my source for births of Phineas and early siblings as Danville (Caledonia County) Vt. You have correct date for Phineas, but birthplace Montpelier, Vt. Do you know source for your info?

Phineas' father, Joseph III, I have learned very recently, apparently got med. education at Dartmouth College. That could explain their family beginnings in Vt, since Joseph III and his father Joseph II tie to Brimfield Mass.

Joseph III identifies with New Woodstock, NY from about 1810 to death in 1820. He was first physician there. (N. Woodstock is 10-12 miles NE of Homer in Madison County. That town was settled by people largely from Woodstock, Conn. and Brimfield, Mass. The story is that early settlers often (jokingly) referred to it as Brimfield.

Now - how several of Joseph III's children were christened in Brimfield in 1811 (from Brimfield printed vol. of vital records which Mass. towns have) and Dr. Joseph III was in New Woodstock in 1810 becomes question. Did he go ahead and return for family later?

5) Death of Fanny - enclosed is copy of her obit in 8 Sept 1871 paper. Wonder whose funeral she went to in Homer. That was my lead to connect Phineas and her to Homer, and to Fanny Cook Andrews. Until then all I had was Fanny C. (and sometimes Fanny "C."

Somewhere there must be a Cook in the Andrews line to give family name as her middle. Have you discovered a Cook anywhere?

6) On page ten of your "John & Benjamin Andrews," I presume the death date for No. 94 - Orissa should be 3 Feb. 1917 (not 1817). Probably a typo - am I correct?

7) Order of descent (from your phone inf to me)
1 Violet Burnham Andrews
2 Orissa Elizabeth Andrews - hus. Matthew Canfield Reed
3 I missed this one ( )
4 John William Reed
5 David Reed
see cousin chart

8) Mormon Church microfiche (copy enclosed) I have taken the county-town-parish address to mean birthplace. Have I misinterpreted this. (Again - you have Phinneas birthplace Montpelier. I keep wanting to put two N's in Phineas

My regards to your husband, cousin David. Sorry to hear about the loss in your family. So glad to make the connection with you

Sincerely yours,
Warren

LOCAL RECORD.

BATAVIA, N. Y. FRIDAY, SEPT. 8, 1871

Don't fail to attend the attractive "Laila" concert, to take place on Wednesday evening next.

THE GENESEE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE is to commence Oct. 2d; so we are informed.

FROM January 1st to August 31st of this year there were 48 interments in our village cemetery.

THE ALERTS of Batavia "wamuxed" the Attica B. B. Club at Alexander on Thursday of last week—18 to 17.

A FLOCK of 1,000 store sheep passed through Main street on Monday last—the property of some speculator.

BUILDING on Ellicott Avenue is brisk. The latest commenced is a large dwelling house for Mr. Hiram Buell.

THE PEACH TRADE is quite brisk just now. Hay and the Kenyon are furnishing large supplies to their customers.

DROWNED.—On Wednesday night of this week, Mrs. Fanny C. Moffatt, an old lady who resided on Liberty street, was drowned in the creek near the old Conhocton and Buffalo railroad crossing. Mrs. Moffatt had been to Homer, N. Y., to attend the funeral of a sister, and returned on the 7.30 P. M. railroad train. After alighting from the cars she had some trouble in finding her check for baggage, and while she was searching for it the busses left; one of the drivers offering to return for her, if she desired. She decided to walk home, however. After finding and delivering her baggage check to O. D. Sanford, and declining his proposition to send a buss to take her home, as the evening was quite dark, she started to follow the Erie railroad track, which runs near her house. Unfortunately, either because of bewilderment or carelessness, she went west instead of east, and followed the Erie switch track through Howard & William's lumber yard to the creek, into which she fell. Persons on the Alexander road, west of the creek, heard her screams, "I'm lost! I'm lost!" and ran to rescue her, but she drowned ere help came. Mrs. Moffatt was relict of Phinneas Moffatt, and has been a resident of Batavia for twenty-nine years or more.

THE GOOD TEMPLAR'S District Convention met here on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The attendance was quite large, delegates being present from Monroe, Niagara, Orleans, Erie, Livingston, Wyoming, and Genesee. The meeting opened with G. D. Porter in the chair; Sister Prindle, of East Bethany, V. T.; Thos. Yates, of Batavia, R. W. G. T.; Rev. Ward, of Buffalo, W. C.; D. W. Hooker, of Le Roy, W. S; A. P. Kelsey, of Le Roy, W. M.; Sister Ball, of Bethany Center, I. G.; W. J. Dushea, of Stafford, O. G.

Reports from the different Lodges, and interesting discussions of matters pertaining to the interests of the Order and the cause it was established to advance, occupied the sessions.

On Tuesday evening a public meeting was held at Ellicott Hall, which, though not very well attended by our people, was full of interest.

What particular business was accomplished on Wednesday, we did not learn, except the passage of resolutions, one of which strongly urged that the Ninth District be represented in the Board of Division officers.

Among those whose names we heard mentioned in connection with Grand Division officers, was D. W. Hooker, of Le Roy, who is suggested as Secretary. Brother Hooker would make a most excellent officer, and we think his election to the office named would be received with satisfaction by the Order in Western New York.

OWEN COTTON, Esq., of Attica, died on Tuesday last in the 90th year of his age. He became a permanent resident of Attica in 1817. Mr. Cotton was a member of the Masonic order, the oldest one in this part of the country, we think, except, perhaps, Mr. George Cooley of the same place.

THE Morris, [Ill.,] Advertiser tells this about a Batavia boy: "M. M. Kendall, employed by Irons and Davidson, made on the 25th of August, one dozen 8-inch tin boilers in 7 hours and 45 minutes; no pressed work used." Mr M. is a son of S. B. Kendall of this village and learned his trade at G. B. Worthington's. We rather think tinners will admit that twelve 8 inch boilers in 7¾ hours, was a great day's work.

HALL & ELMORE have removed to the Seaver Drug Store, which has been a few years since; Mr. Glover as partner, and Mr. Brininstool as clerk. Baring the habit of letting the shade trees go untrimmed we should judge Warsaw to be a very pleasant little place to reside in.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A serious accident occurred on Sunday last on the Central Railroad near Corfu the particulars of which are thus given by the Buffalo Courier: "A horse drawing a democrat wagon, in which were a Mr. Robinson, his wife and infant child, became frightened and ran away, dashing into the tender of the express train going west. One of the reins broke as the horse began to run, rendering the animal uncontrolable. Both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were badly injured, the former receiving a severe scalp wound and several bruises, while the lady had an arm broken and suffered serious internal injuries. The child was not hurt. The horse, a valuable animal, was instantly killed, and the wagon was split into kindling wood. A doctor was sent for from Corfu and attended to the sufferers. The train was delayed about half an hour by the accident."

Cary.—Rev. Mr. Clute, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place, preached one of his able sermons to a large audience, in the Presbyterian church, last Sabbath evening.

The new concrete building of Messrs. Jackson & Pardee is now up and enclosed, the roofers having finished their work last week, and the carpenters are hard at work on the inside. The building presents a fine appearance, and reflects great credit on the enterprising proprietors.

We understand that one of our staunch business men contemplates putting up a similar block, shortly, upon another portion of the burnt district. We hope that others will go and do likewise.

Bergen.—A Mr. Boughton, a shoemaker in this village, soaked in whiskey until it generated "snakes in his boots," which induced him, on Saturday last, to go into his chamber and attempt to "shuffle off this mortal coil" by a coil of rope. He made so much noise, kicking and threshing around, however, that Mr. Candee, who lives in the same house, heard and went to see what was "to pay." Candee arrived just in time to cut the hanging man down and save his life. On Monday of this week his family was taken to the county Poor House.

We are informed that the burglar who robbed the store of Mr. Lawrence at West Bergen, about a week since, has been arrested in Buffalo, and proves to be a gentleman well known in this town, and hitherto supposed to be an honest fellow. His name is Henry Walker and he acknowledges his guilt and is now in Batavia jail awaiting trial.

attendance. After many friendly greetings the people, who had come in from all directions and in long processions, with "banners floating upon the breeze" and bands of music leading the way, were invited to the stand, where prayer was offered by Elder James, of Alden; after which Miles Wallace, Esq., introduced the Rev. Dr. Muller, of Buffalo, as the speaker of the occasion. It would be impossible for your correspondent to do justice to this gentleman's very able and eloquent address. Suffice it to say, that it is not often that one has the privilege of hearing a more timely or more fitting discourse.

After listening to several other volunteer addresses, interspersed with music by the bands, and after emptying the baskets and unloading the tables, the people began to retire, all feeling that this had been one of the most agreeable occasions of the kind they had ever enjoyed.

May they live to enjoy many others like it, and should the writer be near enough, they may "count him in" every time.

B.

NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mr. Alfred Hale, of Allaway, Wayne county, had 224 bushels of wheat from four acres of ground.

Several cases of paralysis of the hip in horses (the "New York Disease") have occurred in Geneseo.

The Roman Catholics of West Union, Steuben county, have commenced the erection of a church 60x120.

Cheese is looking up. The Belvidere, Allegany county, Cheese Company recently sold 44,800 pounds at 16½ cents per pound.

Thomas Morrissey, of South Addison, fell from his wagon, while intoxicated, and the wheel ran over his neck, causing his death. He leaves a wife and a large family.

An Albion gentleman last week purchased one of the "Thousand Islands," and he intends to erect buildings upon it at once, and make it an attractive summer resort.

The Sheriff of Chautauqua has instituted proceedings for manslaughter against the captain of the ill-fated steamer which was blown up on Chautauqua lake a few days since.

A man in Allegany county recently whipped his wife, for which bit of pleasantry he was fined $35, and, in default of payment, sent to jail. Wouldn't punishment in kind have been better?

The Canandaigua Messenger says: "Counterfeit ten dollar notes on the Flour City national bank of Rochester are being freely circulated in different sections of the
